

How to Complain to Dartford Borough Council

We are committed to offering a high standard of service. We take complaints about our service seriously and aim to address any areas where we have not delivered to the standards we expect of ourselves.

In providing our services, we aim to:

- Deal with you courteously, efficiently and promptly
- Provide appropriate advice and information
- Deliver in line with your requirements and expectations
- Keep you informed
- If we are not able to provide what you want, explain why. Your complaint or concerns are important to us.

It is important to us that our customers value us and the services we provide. If something goes wrong or you are not satisfied with our service, please tell us. You have the right to complain if you feel we have failed in the service we have provided to you. Your feedback helps us to put things right and improve our service.

When considering complaints we aim to:

- Be helpful and open-minded
- Investigate your complaint thoroughly
- Respond in a clear and timely manner
- Put matters right if we have made a mistake
- Learn lessons for the future

What can you complain to us about?

A service complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction from someone who has used our service. Broadly, you can complain to us about:

- Not providing a service or inadequate standard of service
- How we met your needs
- How we communicated with you
- Treatment by or attitude of our staff
- Not following the appropriate administrative process

Appeals against, or objections to, our decisions, should generally be pursued by way of the appropriate statutory or appeals procedure.

Submit your complaint to us by

- Completing our online form
- Calling 01322 343434 or using Relay UK (a national service), which helps people with hearing and speech difficulties communicate with anyone over the phone
- Emailing complaints.officer@dartford.gov.uk
- Or writing to Corporate Complaints Officer, Dartford Borough Council, Civic Centre, Home Gardens, Dartford, Kent, DA1 1DR.

What can you do if you have a complaint?

If you have a complaint about a service you have received from us:

- You can ask for your complaint to be dealt with under our Stage One process and if the Stage One decision does not resolve your complaint, ask for a review of the decision under our Stage Two process

Is there a time limit for complaining?

You should complain to us within twelve months. We will not normally take action on your complaint after this time. However, we will consider any exceptional reasons you may give us for not meeting this time limit.

How long will it take?

Acknowledgement – complaints are generally acknowledged within 5 working days' of receipt.

Stage One decisions are issued within 10 working days of us acknowledging your complaint.

Stage Two decisions are issued within 20 working days' of us acknowledging your Stage Two review request.

If your complaint raises complex issues that cannot be answered within the time referred to above, we will keep you informed of progress, until we can fully respond.

Once we have issued a decision under Stage Two, there will be no further internal review of the same matter and unless you raise new issues that we consider significant, we will not respond to you further.

What can you do if you remain dissatisfied with the Stage Two decision?

You may complain to the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman - complete the form on the Ombudsman's website or call the advice line on 0300 061 0614

If we are your landlord, you may complain to the Housing Ombudsman - complete the form on the Ombudsman's website or call the advice line on 0300 111 3000 or email info@housing-ombudsman.org.uk

You will be told in the Stage Two decision which Ombudsman to complain to.

Do you need help to use our complaints service?

As a public sector body, the Equality Act 2010 requires us to consider making adjustments if people with disabilities have problems using our service. If those adjustments are reasonable, we must make them. We are committed to making sure the way we work does not disadvantage disabled people and meets our legal obligations.

If you need any help or support in using our service, please let us know and we will consider what changes we can make to assist you. If you want this information in another language or format (such as large font or Braille), please contact us on 01322 343434 or use Relay UK to communicate with us over the phone.

Fluency duty

As a public authority, we are subject to the fluency duty. A legitimate complaint is one about the standard of spoken English by our staff in a customer-facing role and not about their accent, dialect, manner or tone of communication, origin or nationality.

Anonymous complaints

Anonymous complaints are discouraged, as anonymity makes it more difficult for us to properly investigate and understand a complaint and to provide appropriate responses or redress.

Data protection

In order to deal with your complaint, it is necessary for us to collect and hold personal information about you. Our Complaints Process Privacy Notice explains how we will process your personal information.

Equalities and diversity

We strive to ensure that our complaints service is accessible to all and that we do not inadvertently discriminate against members of any particular group in society. We respect our public sector equality duty obligations under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, as reflected in our Equality and Diversity Document Framework.

Monitoring our Comprehensive Equality Policy

We always want to find out if we are giving as good a service as we can to all service users. To help us do this, please fill in the following questionnaire and your replies will help us review and decide how we can assist as many people as possible.

The information you provide will not be directly shared with any service department and if you would rather not answer some or all of these questions, you do not have to.

The information will be used however to help us better deliver our policies and services so that they can be of the most benefit to our residents.

Please refer to our Corporate Privacy Notice at www.dartford.gov.uk/privacy-notices/corporate-privacy-notice for further details of how we process your personal information and for details on your additional rights (link opens in a new window)
